Mr. Henry O'Malley,
Bureau of Fisheries,
Seattle, Washington.

Dear Mr. O'Malley:

Referring to your telegram of this date to mail 50 copies of form 912, which is the blank for reporting Alaska fisheries operations, you are advised that we find that there are only 83 blanks on hand. We do not want to order any further printed for this season as two or three little changes are in contemplation. I am therefore sending you under three additional covers 35 copies of the blank. I hope that this number will be sufficient.

You probably are in receipt of calls for this blank from persons to whom we mailed blanks yesterday. Probably 200 copies were put in the mail yesterday, all persons being supplied who according to our records had not heretofore received blanks. We are holding a few blanks in reserve here in the event of urgent calls. Should you need any of our small number now remaining, please advise by telegraph.

Yours sincerely,

Ward I Bomer
